It's Christmas at Fawlty Towers, but Basil's finding it a challenge to get into the Christmas spirit:

He booked a father Christmas who hasn't turned up (and Manuel is a very poor substitute); there's rat poison on the turkey so he has to turn to a local chef for help (while keeping the health inspector at bay);

he still hasn't hung the decorations despite promising Sybil it would be done before dinner; and to make things worse, there's a German Christmas Market taking place next door.

As long as no one mentions the war, surely everything will go smoothly...?

It's Christmas at Fawlty Towers

DON'T MENTION
THAT THIS IS A TRIBUTE SHOW!
